European University of Flensburg

Fall semester of 2020/2021 academic year

Penza State University announces that it is accepting applications from students interested in studies abroad at European University of Flensburg, Germany (fall semester of 2020-2021 academic year).

2 master students can be received by the hosting university without tuition fees. The selected students will be awarded an Erasmus+ EU grant to help cover the travel and subsistence costs incurred in connection with their study period abroad. Outgoing students receive 850 € per month and also travel support ranging from 360 € according to the distance between Penza and Flensburg.

Successful applicants will attend a number of courses to be integrated into their curriculum, in consultations with their supervisors.

We encourage students to participate within the following fields of study:

- Linguistics: Kultur. Sprachen. Medien.

Dead-Line for Applications: 1 April 2020

The University of Flensburg was founded in 1994. Originally formed as a Teacher Training College in 1946, the University now offers Educational Sciences as well as Cultural, Social and Management Studies. Other study programs are Energy/Environmental and Health Management.
