Professional training course "European Union practices of fighting poverty and social exclusion"

https://international.pnzgu.ru/international_cooperation/international_projects/eusosel

Content:

(1) Economic development level in the EU member states, problem of poverty in the EU (2 hours)

(2) Legal frameworks for fighting poverty in the EU (2 hours)

(3) Europe 2020: A strategy for smart, sustainable and inclusive growth (2 hours)

(4) The European Platform against Poverty and Social Exclusion 2010: design, content, results (2 hours)

(5) Social Europe: new perspectives (2 hours)

(6) Discussion: What European practices of fighting poverty are relevant for the RF? (2 hours)

Learning outcomes (on successful completion of the course, the trainees should be able to):

- review the history and significance of EU social law
- discuss ideas and practices used in European social security law, including fighting poverty
- interpret main provisions of the European Platform against Poverty and Social Exclusion and other social documents in the EU
- analyse provisions of EU documents on fighting poverty and social exclusion
- identify European practices applicable to Russian law

An application to join the professional training course should be sent until 15 September 2022 at e-mail ann-alexandrova@mail.ru (please indicate your full name, contact phone number, e-mail)

Teachers

Anna Aleksandrova,
PhD in Legal Sciences,
Associate Professor of the
Department of Legal Disciplines

Anastasiia Ryzhova,
PhD in Legal Sciences,
Associate Professor of the
Department of Legal Disciplines

Funded by the European Union