

Winter School of Law Academia Legis

14-18
FEBRUARY 2023

Teachers

Gleb Sintsov

Prof. Dr. in Legal Sciences,
Vice-Rector for International Affairs,
Professor of the Department of
Private and Public Law

Evgenii Bitiutskii

PhD in Legal Sciences,
Associate Professor
of the Department of Law Enforcement

Danil Feoktistov

PhD in Legal Sciences,
Associate Professor
of the Department of
Private and Public Law

Aim:

Winter School of Law aims to raise their awareness among schoolchildren about human rights policies, law enforcement and advocacy interaction, human rights protection mechanisms in the EU and in the RF that can be useful in their future life.

Content:

1. Policies on human rights protection in the EU and in the RF
2. Role of law enforcement and advocacy in protecting human rights and fundamental freedoms
3. Mechanism for additional protection of human rights in the EU and in the RF

Holding format :

- interactive lectures
- role-playing games in different settings (e.g. court hearing, counselling the Human Rights Ombudsperson, etc.)

Registration:

- The application for the Winter School of Law Academia Legis should be sent by 25 December 2022 at int_affairs@pnzgu.ru (please indicate your name, phone number, e-mail, educational institution and grade in the application)

[https:// international.
pnzgu.ru/
international_ cooperation/international_ projects/proeu](https://international.pnzgu.ru/international_cooperation/international_projects/proeu)

This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the European Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Funded by the European Union